

R&D Fund Project

Development of Firefly Conservation Program At Kg. Kuantan, Kuala Selangor, Selangor Darul Ehsan

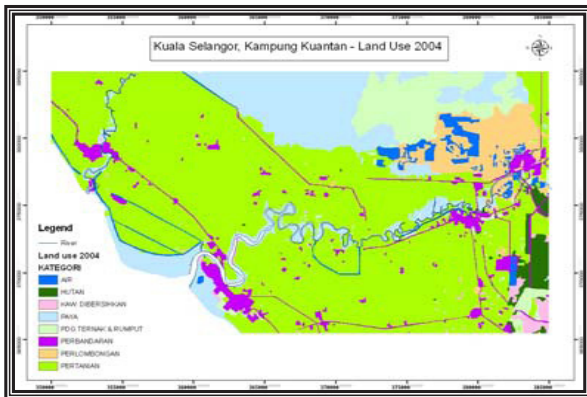

Adult Firefly

publication of a book; “The Mysterious & Magical World of Fireflies”, physical development at site and installation of road signage that leads to the site. TNB through the assistance of the Environment Unit of TNB Research Sdn. Bhd. look forward to contribute more and to participate in further research towards the conservation of fireflies and its habitat.

Deliverables

- Literature review regarding firefly conservation works, and biology of firefly such as lifecycle, habitats, feeding habit etc.
- Assessment of land use changes and establish maps of firefly habitat
- Identify scope of research for the TNB Firefly Conservation and Habitat Rehabilitation

Berembang population as the firefly habitat at Kg. Kuantan

Benefits

The study has determined scope of research and estimated cost to gather significant information, specifically data on firefly habitat and biology requirements. This data and information are important to determine the propose rehabilitation works to sustain the firefly population at Kg. Kuantan, Kuala Selangor. The proposed conservation program will assist and enable Corporate Communications Department, TNB to make efficient and fast decisions in determining TNB’s role in future contribution towards the conservation of firefly population.

Project Overview

TNB is committed in the conservation program of firefly at Kg. Kuantan, Kuala Selangor, Selangor and has started with some of the activities such as the

This will also help to enhance the public perception of TNB as a responsible corporate organization.